INTRODUCTION

At just 14 years old, Pedro Varela de Matos, known as 'Pedrinho 13', is a young rider characterised by his excellent riding technique. Born in Vila Nova de Santo André, in the Alentejo region of Portugal, he is recognised (including by the president of the FIM - the international motorcycling federation - Jorge Viegas) as one of the youngest talents in national speedway, and he is also showing increasing promise on international stages.

He started motorcycling when he was just 6 years old and, since then, he has constantly found himself in the top positions of the championships he has competed in.
